

1:1 language training and personal study time

15 hours of Business English training plus free time to develop your English away from the classroom

Our Short Individual Course provides intensive one-to-one training in the mornings only, tailored specifically to your individual needs. The course gives you more leisure time to consolidate and develop your language skills, making it ideal for the independent learner who wants a more economical training option - while enjoying the benefits of a full UK immersion experience.

How you choose to spend your leisure/free time is entirely up to you - for example, you may wish to visit nearby towns and cities to practise your English in real-life situations, such as when travelling, shopping or eating out; or you might prefer to review the new grammar and vocabulary you've learned, or simply talk and listen to people in the local community here in Malmesbury.

Benefits of a Short Individual Course

A Short Individual Course provides the benefits of 1:1 tuition, plus time to get out and about and put the English you've learnt into practice

A Short Individual Course gives you a balanced immersion experience, with a combination of expert individual tuition in the mornings and leisure time in the afternoons, providing plenty of opportunity for assimilation of new language and vocabulary. The courses are perfect for those who want the benefits of 1:1 training, plus more personal time for improving your English in a way that suits you.

The 1:1 tuition will develop your speaking and listening skills through structured activities, including telephone and meeting simulations, listening to current affairs podcasts and taking part in negotiations and business discussions – all designed to be as relevant as possible to your job and your workplace.

Your weekly programme comprises 15 hours of intensive 1:1 training and includes some 'informal' time with trainers during breaks. You will also benefit from additional English-speaking time with your host family in the mornings and evenings.

To take a Short Individual Course at Abbey, participants can be at Beginner level in English or above.

We provide a relaxed and supportive learning environment where you will be encouraged to speak English immediately, both within the training setting and after-hours. Our activities are designed to help you use language spontaneously and to communicate confidently and with authority.

Our intensive immersion programmes are often seen as complementary to other learning methods and are frequently undertaken as part of a 'blended' learning package, perhaps involving online training or study in your home country.
